I also claim to be the first in Decatur to a ivertise that I would cell Furniture, Carpets, Stoves and all manner of Household Goods on East Payments. at was also first to advertise that I would pay 'reight on all goods sold outside of Decatur.

Now I say to my friends and costomers if you want information about rooms in Chicago, come and look over the long list offered me in 960 different parts of Chicago. PUBLIC LAND SALE.

I will, as the attorney in fact of Matilda J. Moore, on WEDNESDAY, THE 24th DAY OF MAY, 1893, commencing at to o'clock a. m., sell at public sale the beautiful addition, SOLANA PLACE, except six lots, which have been already sold. There are 88 lots in this addition to be sold. Located on high and dry land just west of Oakland Avenue and between the Wabash Railway and King street. The considerations which determine the value of residence property are the nearness to the business center, character of neighborhood and healthiness of location. All these essentials are to be found in Solana Place. It is no further from business than Pugh street, the Jasper Street school, or Oakland Park. It is eight blocks nearer than the outskirts of the city on the north. It is just across the railroad from the northwest corner of West Park Addition, which sold off and built up rapidly. It is two blocks west of Bellevue Place, which was all sold out in less than two weeks. It adjoins Park Place, and is sure to sell fast. The neighborhood is of high character and the houses bespeak the character. The city is already built up to it, no fields intervening. The land slopes to the south and west. The drainage is perfect. No possibility of making a mistake. Buy and double your money. A street railway is promised with two blocks of this addition. The gravet road insures good driving all the year round, because it extends to the paved streets. This valuable addition was platted and laid out in lots, blocks, streets and alleys last fall, and the owner has now decided to sell it.

PLACE. SOLANA

Here is a bargain for the parties lucky enough to get it. Here they can double their money long before the last payment becomes due.

The above is a plat of the addition and shows the lots sold, and is now on record.

A discount of o per cent of all additional to describe the above one-third will be given. Sale will be on the premises west of city. Cash and the sale of the separate has a second of the separate bids will be on the premises west of city. Cash and the sale of the separate has a second of the separate bids and the separate bids will be given. Sale will be on the premises west of city.
